

April 12, 2022 (48 days)

In the south of Ukraine, in the temporarily occupied areas of Zaporizhia and Kherson regions, the enemy uses the premises of agricultural enterprises, civilian infrastructure, human settlements centers to house equipment and the military, in violation of basic rules of international humanitarian law.

The partial blockade of Kharkiv continues. Civilians are suffering from heavy shelling: 30 wounded and 8 killed. Artillery is used to destroy the residential areas of Kharkiv, Dergachi and Pyatihatki.

The Luhansk region was subjected to intense shelling, including the residential areas of Rubizhne, Lysychansk, and Severodonetsk. 17 fires were extinguished. The morgues in the region are full of bodies of dead civilians, in the breaks between battles they are buried in mass graves and in the courtyards of high-rise buildings.

Novoselivka, Krasnohorivka, Vodiane, and Pesky are being actively shelled in the Donetsk region. The situation in the city of Mariupol is critical, battles for the city are underway, and the Azovstal metallurgical complex and the seaport are currently being defended. Today 208 people were evacuated from Mariupol. The enemy is blocking convoys of buses that could take people out. According to preliminary data, up to 22,000 people died in the city, 40% of high-rise buildings were destroyed.

In the Khmelnysky region, a missile was fired at an infrastructure facility, resulting in a fire.

Kherson region is on the verge of a humanitarian catastrophe, 106 settlements are currently without electricity.

A civilian car exploded on the Chernihiv-Kyiv road, killing the driver. The incident was caused by the use of anti-tank mines by the enemy in the temporarily occupied territories.

The bodies of 403 killed and tortured people who died during the occupation by the Russian army were found in Bucha, Kyiv Region. In total, the bodies of 720 civilians were found in the Kyiv region, and more than 200 people are still missing.

Medvedchuk, Putin's godfather, was detained with the Security Service of Ukraine for using a Ukrainian military uniform to disguise himself

\ The facts described in the analytical information are confirmed by the materials of the Ministry of Defense of Ukraine*