

March 31, 2022 (36 day)

An international independent commission has been set up at the UN Human Rights Council to investigate war crimes in Ukraine.

In the temporarily occupied territories of Sumy and Kharkiv regions, the Russian military places prohibited mines with seismic sensors (the latest anti-personnel mines POM-3 "Medallion"), which are manufactured only by Russia. They respond to walking and can kill within a radius of 16 meters.

The death toll as a result of rocket attack on the building of the Mykolaiv regional public administration on March 29 increased to 20 people.

Last night, the Russian military launched an air strike on an oil depot in the Dnieper. The facility was completely destroyed, and two tankers were damaged by rocket debris. In Novomoskovsk, they hit an asphalt plant.

The shelling in Luhansk region burns down a school (Severodonetsk), an oil depot (Lysychansk) and dozens of houses (according to preliminary data, seven people were killed and two children were injured).

In the Donetsk region, intensive shelling of the cities of Mariynka, Krasnohorivka and Novomykhailivka continued. The Russian military uses banned phosphorus shells. Mariupol remains in an extremely difficult situation.

Today, as a result of the shelling of the Russian military in Kharkiv, the underground gas pipeline was destroyed, 34,000 people were left without gas supply. During 35 days of hostilities in the city, 15% of residential buildings were destroyed. One person was killed and three were injured in the shelling in Dergachi.

In the liberated Trostanets of Sumy region, which was previously occupied by the Russian military, many facilities remained mined.

After a long stay in the Chornobyl Exclusion Zone, the Russian military is beginning to leave. A large number of soldiers were brought to the Belarusian Radiation Medicine Center in Gomel today. They were at the Chernobyl nuclear power plant, as well as in the so-called Red Forest - the most polluted area near the station, received a significant dose of radiation. Today, the occupiers marched in two columns towards the Belarusian-Ukrainian border. Also, the Russian military, which besieged the city of Slavutych, announced its intention to leave Ukraine.

As a result of armed aggression on the territory of Ukraine, 148 children died and 232 children were injured.

 The facts described in the analytical information are confirmed by the materials of the Ministry of Defense of Ukraine*